Preface

WITH the instinct of the century-plant, Grace Church emphasizes the completion of a hundred years* by throwing out a flower—a flower of song. The Parish has, from the beginning of its ordered life, made a strong point of music, in fact, at times, may possibly have come under suspicion of arrogance in taking her leadership too easily for granted. People fairly past middle life have no difficulty in recalling the oblong books of sacred music which, under various titles, used to lie upon the piano-racks of well-to-do households for family use on Sunday evenings. "CARMINA SACRA" was one of them, "THE BOSTON ACADEMY" was another, "GREATOREX" another, and last, with somewhat ampler margin than the rest came in 1852 the "GRACE CHURCH COLLECTION" the editor of which was not restrained by modesty from expressing himself as follows :

"While to the music of Grace Church superiority has been universally accorded, some have erroneously fallen into the opinion that it is of an operatic character. The publication of this Book completely refutes so grave a charge."

How far this earnest disclaimer was justified by facts, only the few survivors of the church-going New Yorkers of that period are qualified to bear witness. There is a persistent tradition running to the contrary. Certain it is that, away back in the twenties, Malibran, an opera star of the first magnitude, drew to the earlier Grace Church, where now the Empire Building stands, a congregation that packed the edifice to the doors; and it may be that from this incident the rumor which troubled the editor of the "COLLECTION" took its rise.

But many things have happened since then, among them, notably, the Oxford Movement, with its revolutionary influence upon ecclesiastical music throughout English-speaking lands. Grace Church has witnessed the successive reigns of the Quartette, the Mixed Chorus, and the Vested Choir of Men and Boys. At present the Parish is living contentedly under the last-named régime, and with small likelihood of a change. It is not maintained by those who approve this order of progress that musical art has been, in all respects, furthered thereby. The real contention is that the interests of devotion have been enhanced, and that what exquisiteness may have lost worship has gained.

It is with the single thought of religious helpfulness that my dear friend, the compiler of this Collection, has done his work. He has aimed to bring together such tunes as will, in his judgment, enable congregations to sing their way through the Hymnal of the Church with the least possible difficulty. His work is not that of either a theorist or an amateur. He has not aimed at collecting the tunes that people ought to sing. He has collected those which he has actually heard them sing, and, therefore, knows that they can sing. And this, moreover, has been done without yielding a jot either to sentimentalism or to vulgarity, those foes of sobriety and reverence.

As one "that occupieth the room of the unlearned" with respect to all things musical, I should stoutly have refused Mr. Helfenstein's request that I write this Preface, had not gratitude compelled. I could not refuse a little to one to whom I owed much. That his Book may accomplish for other churches the transforming work which his skilled hands and quick perceptions have done for Grace, is the best wish I could wish him. And I wish it.

WILLIAM REED HUNTINGTON.

GRACE CHURCH RECTORY,
JANUARY NINTH 1909.

IT was voted by both houses of the General Convention held in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two that the final report of the Joint Commission on the Hymnal, as amended by concurrent vote of the two Houses, be set forth and authorized as the Hymnal of this Church, provided that the use of the present Hymnal be allowed until the next General Convention.

CERTIFICATE.

It is hereby certified that this edition of the Hymnal, having been compared with and corrected by the Standard Book, as the General Convention has directed, is permitted to be published accordingly.

On behalf of the Commission empowered to superintend the publication of the Hymnal.

CANON 25 OF TITLE 1 OF THE DIGEST.

OF CHURCH MUSIC.

§ 1. The Hymns which are set forth by authority, and Anthems in the Words of Holy Scripture, are allowed to be sung in all Congregations of this Church before and after Morning and Evening Prayer, and also before and after Sermons, at the discretion of the Minister, whose duty it shall be, by standing directions, or from time to time, to appoint such authorized Hymns or Anthems as are to be sung.

§ 2. It shall be the duty of every Minister of this Church, with such assistance as he may see fit to employ from persons skilled in music, to give order concerning the tunes to be sung at any time in his Church; and especially, it shall be his duty to suppress all light and unseemly music, and all indecency and irreverence in the performance, by which vain and ungodly persons profane the service of the sanctuary.

FIRST LINE OF HYMN.	NO.
Onward, Christian, though the regions	620
Out of the deep I call	349
Prince of Peace, control my will	613
Rock of Ages, cleft for me	336
Saviour, source of every blessing	442
Saviour, when in dust to Thee	89
Saviour, Whom I fain would love	355
Sinful, sighing to be blest	347
Teach us what Thy love has borne (Litany)	529
The Spirit in our hearts	596
There is a fountain filled with blood	593
Thou hidden love of God, whose height	658
Thy life was given for me	604
To-day Thy mercy calls us	590
Through Him Who all our sickness felt	588
Turned by Thy grace I look within	595
Weary of earth and laden with my sin	82
Weary of wandering from my God	83
When at Thy footstool, Lord, I bend	591
When the weary seeking rest	609
With broken heart and contrite sigh	87

I. DAILY PRAYER

Morning

1 (FIRST TUNE) L. M. MELCOMBE S. Webbe

f
New ev - ery morn-ing is the love Our wakening and up - ris - ing prove;
f
Thro' sleep and darkness safely brought, Restor'd to life, and pow'r, and thought. AMEN.

mf 2 New mercies, each returning day,
Hover around us while we pray;
New perils past, new sins forgiven,
New thoughts of God, new hopes of heaven.

mf 3 If on our daily course our mind
Be set to hallow all we find,
New treasures still, of countless price,
God will provide for sacrifice.

mf 4 Old friends, old scenes, will lovelier be,
As more of heaven in each we see;
p Some softening gleam of love and prayer Shall dawn on every cross and care.

mf 5 The trivial round, the common task,
Will furnish all we need to ask;
Room to deny ourselves, a road
To bring us daily nearer God.

mf 6 Only, O Lord, in Thy dear love,
Fit us for perfect rest above;
And help us, this and every day,
To live more nearly as we pray.

2 (FIRST TUNE) L. M. PART I. MORNING HYMN F. H. Bartholemon

f
A-wake, my soul, and with the sun Thy dai - ly stage of du - ty run;
f
Shake off dull sloth, and ear-ly rise To pay thy morn-ing sac - ri - fice. A - MEN.

mf 2 Redeem thy misspent time that's past,
And live this day as if thy last;
Improve thy talent with due care;
For the great Day thyself prepare.

mf 3 Wake, and lift up thyself, my heart,
And with the angels bear thy part,
Who all night long, unwearied, sing
High praise to the eternal King.

PART II

mf 4 All praise to Thee, Who safe has kept,
And hast refreshed me while I slept;
Grant, Lord, when I from death shall wake
I may of endless light partake.

mf 5 Lord, I my vows to Thee renew;
Scatter my sins as morning dew;
Guard my first springs of thought and will,
And with Thyself my spirit fill.

mf 6 Direct, control, suggest, this day,
All I design, or do, or say;
That all my pow'rs, with all their might,
In Thy sole glory may unite.

f 7 Praise God, from Whom all blessings flow, Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, angelic host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Come, my soul, thou must be wak-ing! Now is break-ing O'er the earth an - oth - er day: Come, to Him Who made this splendour, See thou ren-der All thy fee - ble strength can pay. A - MEN.

mf 2 Pray that He may prosper ever

When thine aim is good and true;

He unfoldeth Every fault that lurks within;

mf 4 And week by week this day we ask That holy memories of Thy Cross
May sanctify each common task, cr O Conqueror of the grave, be Thou our guide,

mf Be Thou our light (dim) in death's dark eventide;
Then in our mortal hour will be no gloom,
No sting in death, no terror in the tomb.

mf 3 Thou, Who in darkness walking didst appear Upon the waves, and Thy disciples cheer,
Come, Lord, in lonesome days, when storms assail, dim And earthly hopes and human succours fail:
p When all is dark (cr) may we behold Thee nigh,
And hear Thy voice "Fear not, for it is I."

p 4 The weary world is mouldering to decay,
Its glories wane, its pageants fade away;
cr In that last sunset when the stars shall fall, ff May we arise awakened by Thy call, dim With Thee, O Lord, for ever to abide cr In that blest day which has no eventide.

mf 2 On this the day that God hath blest,
The day of peace and heavenly rest,
The Lord's own holy day.

And that more glorious life awake
That lasteth evermore;

f 4 That saw hell's legions prostrate fall,
And Christ, triumphant over all,
His own to heaven restore.

mf 5 This day the peace that flows from heaven
Was unto the Apostles given,
When doors were closed at night;

mf 6 This day the Holy Spirit's flame Upon the Church's teachers came,
And filled their souls with light.

f 7 Still on this day with trumpet sound
The Gospel notes are ringing round,
To call the world to pray:

p 8 Then on this day let us adore
Our God, and supplication pour, pp That, when worlds pass away,

In peace and joy, for ever blest,

I. THE QUESTION. 6. 4. 6. 3.

1. In His own raiment clad, With His blood dyed; Women walk sor-row-ing By His side.
2. [Heavy that cross to Him, Wea-ry the weight; One who will help Him waits At the gate.
p

mf 3 See! they are travelling
On the same road;
Simon is sharing with Him the load.]

mf 4 O whither wandering Bear they that tree?
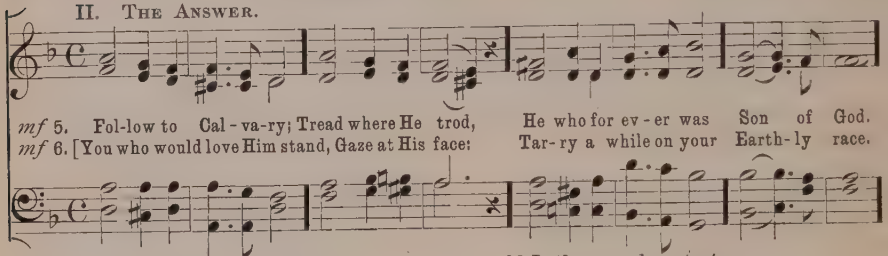
He Who first carries it,
Who is He?

II. THE ANSWER.



mf 5. Fol-low to Cal-va-ry; Tread where He trod, He who for ev-er was Son of God.
mf 6. [You who would love Him stand, Gaze at His face: Tar-ry a while on your Earth-ly race.

mf 7 As the swift moments fly
Through the blest week,
Read the great story the Cross will teach.]

mf 8 Is there no beauty to You who pass by,
In that lone figure which Marks that sky?

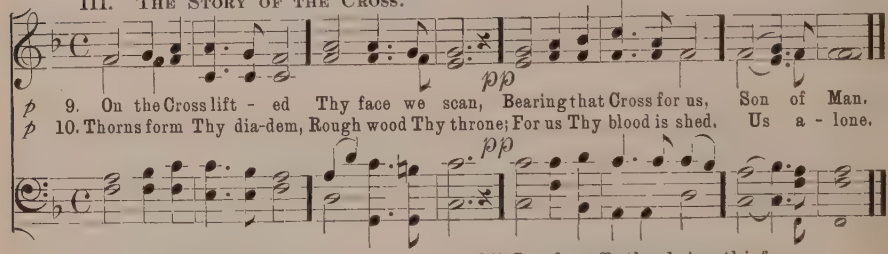
III. THE STORY OF THE CROSS.



pp
p 9. On the Cross lift-ed Thy face we scan, Bearing that Cross for us, Son of Man.
p 10. Thorns form Thy dia-dem, Rough wood Thy throne; For us Thy blood is shed, Us a-lone.
pp

p 11 No pillow under Thee
To rest Thy head;
dim Only the splintered Cross Is Thy bed.

pp 12 [Nails pierced Thy hands and feet,
Thy side the spear;
No voice is nigh to say Help is near.

p 13 Shadows of midnight fall,
Though it is day:
Thy friends and kinsfolk stand Far away.

p 14 Loud is Thy bitter cry; Sunk on Thy breast
pp Hangeth Thy bleeding head Without rest.

mf 15 Loud scoffs the dying thief,
Who mocks at Thee:
Can it, my Saviour, be
All for me?

mf 16 Gazing, afar from Thee, Silent and lone,
Stand those few weepers Thou Callest Thine own.

mf 17 I see Thy title, Lord, Inscribed above;
"Jesus of Nazareth," King of Love.]

mf 18 What, O my Saviour, Here didst Thou see, dim Which made Thee suffer and Die for me?

IV. The Appeal.

mf 20 I saw thee wandering Far off from Me:
In love I seek for thee;
Do not flee.

p 21 For thee My blood I shed,
For thee alone;
I came to purchase thee,
For Mine own.

mf 22 Weep thou not for My grief,
Child of My love:
Strive to be with Me in Heaven above.]

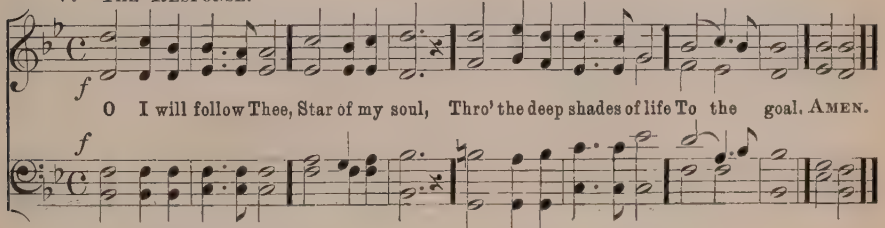
V. The Response.



f 24 Yea, let Thy cross be borne
Each day by me;
Mind not how heavy, if
But with Thee.

mf 25 Lord, if Thou only wilt,
Make us Thine own,
Give no companion, save Thee alone.

mf 26 Grant through each day of life
To stand by Thee;
cr With Thee, when morning breaks Ever to be.

E. Monroe

Hearts are failing, love grows cold;
Faith is darkened, sin abounding;
Grievous wolves assail Thy fold;
cr Save us, Lord, our one Salvation;
mf Save the Faith revealed of old.

Warn the tempted by Thy fear;
Keep us true to Thine allegiance, Counting life itself less dear;
cr Standing firmer, holding faster, dim As we see the end draw near:

cr 6 Till, with holy Jude and Simon
And the thousand faithful more, f We, the good confession witnessed
And the lifelong conflict o'er,
On the sea of fire and crystal
Stand, and wonder, and adore.

ST. ANDREW

f 2 Praise, Lord, for Thine Apostle, the first to welcome Thee,
The first to lead his brother, the very Christ to see.
mf With hearts for Thee made ready, watch we throughout the year, cr Forward to lead our brethren to own Thine Advent near.

ST. THOMAS

f 3 All praise for Thine Apostle, whose short-lived doubtings prove cr Thy perfect twofold nature, the fulness of Thy love.
dim On all who wait Thy coming shed forth Thy peace, O Lord, cr And grant us faith to know Thee, true Man, true God, adored.

ST. STEPHEN

f 4 Praise for the first of Martyrs, who saw Thee ready stand,
To aid in midst of torments, to plead at God's right hand.
mf Share we with him, if summoned by death our Lord to own,
On earth the faithful witness, in heaven the martyr crown.

ST. JOHN THE EVANGELIST

f 5 Praise for the loved disciple, (mf) exile on Patmos' shore, f Praise for the faithful record, he to Thy Godhead bore.
Praise for the mystic vision, through him to us revealed, mf May we, in patience waiting, with Thine elect be sealed.

THE HOLY INNOCENTS

f 6 Praise for Thine infant martyrs, (dim) by Thee with tenderest love p Called early from the warfare to share the rest above.
cr O Rachel! cease thy weeping they rest from pains and cares.
dim Lord, grant us hearts as guileless, (cr) and crowns as bright as theirs.

THE CONVERSION OF ST. PAUL

f 7 Praise for the light from heaven, praise for the voice of awe, Praise for the glorious vision the persecutor saw Thee, Lord, for his conversion, we glorify to-day;
mf So lighten all our darkness with Thy true Spirit's ray.

Other Feasts and Fasts

St. Matthias

mf 8 Lord, Thine abiding presence directs the wondrous choice;
For one in place of Judas the faithful now rejoice.
Thy Church from false apostles for evermore defend,
And by Thy parting promise be with her to the end.

St. Mark

f 9 For him, O Lord, we praise Thee, the weak by grace made strong, Whose labours and whose Gospel enrich our triumph-song.
mf May we in all our weakness find strength from Thee supplied,
And all, as fruitful branches, in Thee, the Vine abide.

St. Philip and St. James f 10 All praise for Thine Apostle, blest guide to Greek and Jew,

And him surnamed Thy brother; (mf) keep us Thy brethren true,
And grant us grace to (cr) know Thee, the Way, the Truth, the Life, dim To wrestle with temptations (cr) till victors in the strife.

St. Barnabas

mf 11 The Son of Consolation, moved by Thy law of love, Forsaking earthly treasures, sought riches from above.
As earth now teems with increase, let gifts of grace descend, cr That Thy true consolations may through the world extend.

St. John Baptist

f 12 We praise Thee for the Baptist, forerunner of the Word, Our true Elias, making a highway for the Lord.
mf Of prophets last and greatest (cr) he saw Thy dawning ray:
f Make us the rather blessed, who love Thy glorious day.

St. Peter

f 13 Praise for Thy great Apostle, the eager and the bold;
p Thrice falling, (mf) yet repentant, thrice charged to keep Thy Fold.
p Lord, make Thy pastors faithful, (cr) to guard their flocks from ill,
And grant them dauntless courage, (dim) with humble, earnest will.

St. James

f 14 For him, O Lord, we praise Thee, (mf) who, slain by Herod's sword, Drank of Thy cup of suffering, fulfilling thus Thy word.
Curb we all vain impatience to read Thy veiled decree,
And count it joy to suffer, (cr) if so brought nearer Thee.

St. Bartholomew

f 15 All praise for Thine Apostle, the faithful, pure and true, Whom underneath the fig tree Thine eye all-seeing knew.
mf Like him, may we be guileless, true Israelites indeed, cr That Thy abiding presence our longing souls may feed.

St. Matthew

f 16 Praise, Lord, for him whose Gospel Thy human life declared, Who, worldly gains forsaking, (dim) Thy path of suffering shared.
p From all unrighteous mammon, O give us hearts set free,
That we, whate'er our calling, (cr) may rise and follow Thee.

St. Luke

f 17 For that "beloved physician," all praise, whose Gospel shows
The Healer of the nations, the Sharer of our woes.
mf Thy wine and oil, O Saviour, on bruised hearts deign to pour, cr And with true balm of Gilead anoint us evermore.

St. Simon and St. Jude

f 18 Praise, Lord, for Thine Apostles, who sealed their faith to-day:
One love, one zeal impelled them to tread the sacred way.
mf May we with zeal as earnest the Faith of Christ maintain,
And, bound in love as brethren, (dim) at length Thy rest attain.

General Ending

mf 19 Apostles, Prophets, Martyrs, and all the sacred throng, Who wear the spotless raiment, who raise the ceaseless song;
p For these, passed on before us, (cr) Saviour, we Thee adore,
And, walking in their footsteps, (f) would serve Thee more and more

f 20 Then praise we God the Father, and praise we God the Son,
And God the Holy Spirit, eternal Three in One;
Till all the ransomed number fall down before the throne,
And honour, power, and glory ascribe to God alone.

Lord of the har-vest, Thee we hail! Thine ancient prom-ise doth not fail;
The vary-ing sea-sons haste their round; With good-ness all our years are crowned;
Our thanks we pay, This ho-ly day; O let our hearts in tune be found. A-MEN.

mf 2 When Spring doth wake the song of mirth,
When Summer warms the fruitful earth,
When Autumn yields its ripened grain,
Or Winter sweeps the naked plain, cr We still do sing
To Thee our King;
f Through all their changes Thou dost reign.

f 3 But chiefly when Thy liberal hand
Bestows new plenty o'er the land,
When sounds of music fill the air,
As homeward all their treasures bear;
We too will raise
Our hymn of praise,
For we Thy common bounties share.

mf 4 Lord of the harvest, all is Thine:
The rains that fall, the suns that shine,
The seed once hidden in the ground,
The skill that makes our fruits abound:
cr New every year,
Thy gifts appear;
f New praises from our lips shall sound.

f 2 And now on this our festal day,
Thy bounteous hand confessing,
Upon Thine altar, Lord, we lay
The first-fruits of Thy blessing.
By Thee the souls of men are fed
With gifts of grace supernal,
Thou Who dost give us daily bread,
Give us the Bread eternal.

p 3 We bear the burden of the day,

cr But labour ends with sunset ray, mf And rest is for the weary.
May we, the angel-reaping o'er cr Christ's golden sheaves for evermore

To garners bright elected.

f 4 O bessèd is that land of God,
Where saints abide for ever;

Wholesome grain and pure may be.

mf 3 For the Lord our God shall come,
And shall take His harvest home;
From His field shall in that day

Heav'nly Shepherd, Thee we pray For Thy ser-vant here to-day:
By the cross up-on his brow, By his or-di-na-tion vow,
p
By the prayer's which we have pray'd For the Ho-ly Spir-it's aid, cr
By the deep and fer-vent love Ow-ing to his Lord a-bove,
p
Grant him faith-ful watch to keep, Tend Thy lambs, and feed Thy sheep. A-MEN.

p 2 From the silent power of sin Lurking secretly within, cr May the grace that flows from Thee, Heavenly Shepherd, set him free;
mf By the blessing on him breathed,
By the charge to him bequeathed, cr Thou the Way, the Truth, the Life, Gird him for the sacred strife,
p Aye his faithful watch to keep,
Tend Thy lambs, and feed Thy sheep.

Laying of a Corner-Stone

mf 3 Speed him on his life-long way, Speed him whom we speed to-day;
cr Thou, the gracious, loving Lord,
Give him souls for his reward:
f Till he win the promised crown,
p When he lays his burden down Humbly at his Saviour's feet,
Low before the mercy-seat;
Give him, Lord, Thy grace to keep,
Tend Thy lambs, and feed Thy sheep.

f 4 To the blessèd Trinity Now let praise and glory be,
In Whose Name we meet to-day
For our guidance, as we pray
That we may, in all we do,
Pastor, and his flock, be true;
True to man in heavenly love,
True to Thee, our God above,
Till we, sheep and shepherd, meet,
Ransomed at Thy Judgment seat.

Stone on stone the workmen place,

Strong and living stones, are bound.

f 3 Fair shall be Thine earthly temple:
Here the careless passer-by Shall bethink him, in its beauty,
Of the holier House on high;

p Weary hearts and troubled spirits
Here shall find a still retreat;
Sinful souls shall bring their burden
Here to the Absolver's feet.

mf 4 Yet with truer, nobler beauty,
Lord, we pray, this house adorn,
Where Thy Bride, Thy Church redeemèd,
Robes her for her marriage morn;
Clothed in garments of salvation,
Rich with gems of heavenly grace,
Spouse of Christ, arrayed and waiting Till she may behold His face.

mf 2 Onward we go, for still we hear them singing;
p "Come, weary souls, for Jesus bids you come;"
cr And through the dark, its echoes sweetly ringing,
The music of the Gospel leads us home.
p Angels of Jesus etc.

p 3 Far, far away, like bells at evening pealing,
The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land and sea,
And laden souls by thousands meekly stealing, cr Kind Shepherd, turn their weary steps to Thee.
p Angels of Jesus, etc.

mf 4 Rest comes at length, though life be long and dreary,
The day must dawn, and darksome night be past;
Faith's journeys end in welcome to the weary,
And heaven, the heart's true home, will come at last.
p Angels of Jesus, etc.

mf 5 Angels, sing on! your faithful watches keeping;
Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above;
Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping, cr And life's long shadows break in cloudless love.

To our fathers in distress;
Praise Him still the same as ever,
Slow to chide, (cr) and swift to bless:

Well our feeble frame He knows;
In His hands He gently bears us,
Rescues us from all our foes.

7th verse only.
p
At last the march shall end; The wea - ried ones shall rest;
cr
The pil - grims find their Fa- ther's house, Je - ru - sa - lem the blest.
Org.

mf 2 Bright youth, and snow-crowned age,
Strong men and maidens meek:
Raise high your free exulting song!
God's wondrous praises speak!

f 3 With all the angel choirs,
With all the saints of earth,
Pour out the strains of joy and bliss,
True rapture, noblest mirth!

f 4 Your clear Hosannas raise,
And Alleluias loud!
Whilst answering echoes upward float,
Like wreaths of incense cloud.

mf 5 Yes, on through life's long path!
Still chanting as ye go:
From youth to age, by night and day,
In gladness and in woe.

f 6 Still lift your standard high!
Still march in firm array!
As warriors through the darkness toil,
Till dawns the golden day!

p 7 At last the march shall end;
The wearied ones shall rest:
cr The pilgrims find their Father's house, Jerusalem the blest.

ff 8 Then on, ye pure in heart!
Rejoice, give thanks, and sing!
Your glorious banner wave on high,
The Cross of Christ your King!

PART I.

1 Father, hear Thy children's call:
Humbly at Thy feet we fall,
Prodigals, confessing all:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

2 Christ, beneath Thy cross, we blame
All our life of sin and shame;
Penitent we breathe Thy Name:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

3 Holy Spirit, grieved and tried,
Oft forgotten and defied,
Now we mourn our stubborn pride:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

4 Love, that caused us first to be,
Love, that bled upon the tree,
Love, that draws us lovingly:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

5 We Thy call have disobeyed,
Into paths of sin have strayed,
And repentance have delayed:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

6 Sick, we come to Thee for cure,
Guilty, seek Thy mercy sure,
Evil, long to be made pure:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

7 Blind, we pray that we may see,
Bound, we pray to be made free,
Stained, we pray for sanctity:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

8 Thou Who hear'st each contrite sigh,
Bidding sinful souls draw nigh,
Willing not that one should die:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

PART II.

9 By the gracious saving call,
Spoken tenderly to all,
Who have shared in Adam's fall,
We beseech Thee, hear us.

10 By the nature Jesus wore,
By the stripes and death He bore,
By His life for evermore,
We beseech Thee, hear us.

11 By the love that longs to bless,
Pitying our sore distress,
Leading us to holiness,
We beseech Thee, hear us.

12 By the love so calm and strong,
Patient still to suffer wrong
And our day of grace prolong,
We beseech Thee, hear us.

13 By the love that speaks within,
Calling us to flee from sin,
And the joy of goodness win,
We beseech Thee, hear us.

14 By the love that bids Thee spare,
By the heaven Thou dost prepare,
By Thy promises to prayer,
We beseech Thee, hear us.

PART III.

15 Teach us what Thy love has borne,
That with loving sorrow torn Truly contrite we may mourn:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

16 Gifts of light and grace bestow,
Help us to resist the foe,
Fearing what alone is woe:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

17 Let not sin within us reign,
May we gladly suffer pain,
If it purge away our stain:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

18 May we to all evil die,
Fleshly longings crucify,
Fix our hearts and thoughts on high:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

19 Grant us faith to know Thee near,
Hail Thy grace, Thy judgment fear,
And through trial persevere:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

20 Grant us hope from earth to rise,
And to strain with eager eyes
Towards the promised heavenly prize:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

21 Grant us love Thy love to own,
Love to live for Thee alone,
And the power of grace make known:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

22 All our weak endeavors bless,
As we ever onward press,
Till we perfect holiness:
We beseech Thee, hear us.

23 Lead us daily nearer Thee,
Till at last Thy face we see,
Crowned with Thine own purity:
We beseech Thee, hear us. Amen.

To judgment from His throne on high;
cr And from the saints' assembled throng
f Shall burst upon the world the song, Hosanna in the highest!

With coronals of triumph crowned;

Our chorus of eternal song,

mf 2 I could not do without Thee,

I have no strength or goodness,
No wisdom of my own;
cr But Thou, belovèd Saviour,
Art all in all to me,
And weakness will be power
If leaning hard on Thee.

mf 3 I could not do without Thee,
p For, O the way is long,
And I am often weary,
And sigh replaces song:
How could I do without Thee?
I do not know the way;
cr Thou knowest, and Thou leadest,
And wilt not let me stray.

mf 4 I could not do without Thee,
O Jesus, Saviour dear;
E'en when my eyes are holden,
I know that Thou art near

How dreary and how lonely
This changeful life would be,
Without the sweet communion,
The secret rest with Thee!

mf 5 I could not do without Thee;
No other friend can read
The spirit's strange deep longings, Interpreting its need;
No human heart could enter
Each dim recess of mine,
p And soothe, and hush, and calm it, cr O blessèd Lord, but Thine.

mf 6 I could not do without Thee,
p For years are fleeting fast,
And soon in solemn loneliness
The river must be passed;
cr But Thou wilt never leave me,
And though the waves roll high,
f I know Thou wilt be near me,
p And whisper, "It is I."

In slow time
mf
Days and moments quick-ly fly - ing Speed us on-ward to the dead:
p
O how soon shall we be ly - ing Each with-in his nar-row bed!
p mf 2 Jesus, merciful Redeemer, Rouse dead souls to hear Thy voice;

cr Wake, O wake each idle dreamer
Now to make the eternal choice!

p 3 Mark we whither we are wending; Ponder how we soon must go cr To inherit bliss unending p Or eternity of woe.*

p 4 As a shadow life is fleeting;
As a vapor so it flies:
For the bygone years retreating.
Pardon grant, and make us wise;

mf 5 Wise that we our days may number,
Strive and wrestle with our sin;
Stay not in our work nor slumber
Till Thy holy rest we win.

p 6 Soon before the Judge all glorious We with all the dead shall stand;
cr Saviour, over death victorious,
Place us then on Thy right hand.*

Canticles

AND

Occasional Anthems

POINTED FOR CHANTING BY THE COMMISSION ACTING UNDER THE AUTHORITY OF THE GENERAL CONVENTION.

ATTEST { H. A. NEELY, Chairman.
CHAS. L. HUTCHINS, Secretary

IN putting forth this Pointing of the Canticles, etc., in accordance with the direction of the General Convention, the Commission would call attention to the great importance and practical usefulness of the following suggestions taken from the Preface to the "Cathedral Psalter:"—

1. The words, from the commencement of each verse and half-verse, up to the accented syllable, are called the Recitation.

2. On reaching the accented syllable, and beginning with it, the music of the chant commences, in strict time (a tempo), the upright strokes corresponding to the bars. The Recitation must therefore be considered as outside the chant, and may be of any length. The note on which the Recitation is made is called the Reciting-note.

3. If there is no syllable after that which is accented, the accented syllable must be held for one whole bar or measure.

4. An asterisk (*) is a direction to take breath. Other stops (, ;) must be attended to as in good reading.

5. As the accent holds the position of the first beat of the first bar, it is unnecessary to sing it louder than any of the words recited: its position, musically, will give it quite enough emphasis.

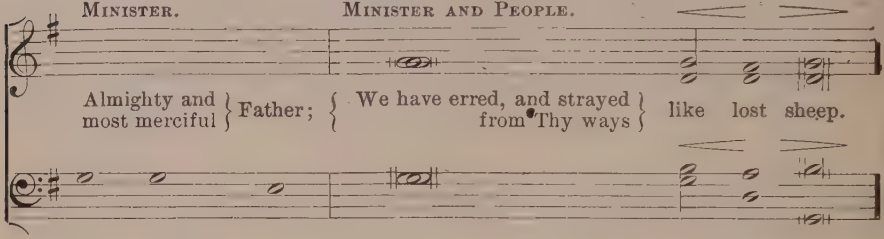
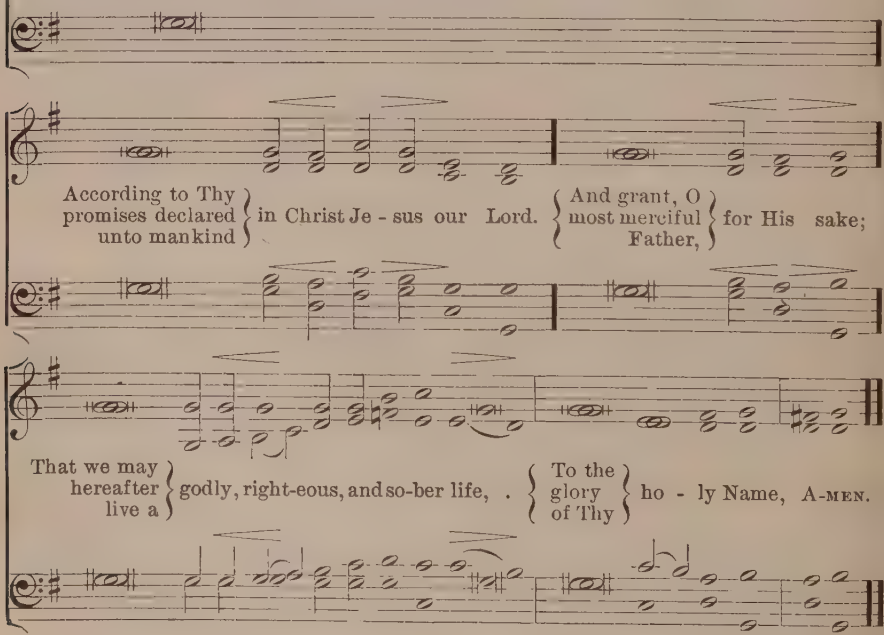
THE GENERAL CONFESSION.

MINISTER. MINISTER AND PEOPLE.



We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts.
We have offended against Thy holy laws.
We have left undone those things which we ought to have done;
And we have done those things which we ought not to have done;
And there is no health in us.
But Thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders.
Spare Thou those, O God, who confess their faults.
Restore Thou those who are penitent;



According to Thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Je - sus our Lord.
And grant, O most merciful Father, for His sake;
That we may hereafter live a godly, right-eous, and so-ber life, .
To the glory of Thy ho - ly Name, A-MEN.

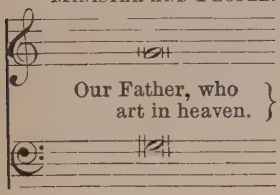
MINISTER AND PEOPLE.



Hallowed be Thy Name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil; for Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever.
